The Power of Clean

April 2010

Quality is Top Priority

PowerBoss has expanded its quality control department and hired several new crucial members to this staff. Moving forward Jesse Mondigo, PowerBoss's director of engineering, will oversee the quality department. His new staff of key members include:

Richard Norton – Senior Quality Engineer

Jimmy Rood – Senior Quality Engineer/ Warranty Administration

Barry Person – QA Engineer

Dan Evans – QA Inspector/ Final Audit

In addition to these key team members; PowerBoss Manufacturing has also hired Joe McKenna as the Manufacturing manager at PowerBoss's Aberdeen plant. We are very excited about these new employees and the experience and expertise they bring with them.
